

Biography

BILL MITCHELL – is an Author, Speaker and Entrepreneur. For over 35 years, he has studied the field of marital behavior and infidelity. Bill has become an expert on how to discover, respond and survive an extramarital affair. Since the release of his book, Adultery-Facing Its Reality, Mr. Mitchell has been referred to as "the Dr. Phil of private detectives" which unsurprisingly segued into an appearance on Dr. Phil in 2005.

His latest new release "The More You Know – Getting the evidence and support you need to investigate a troubled relationship" was published December 2004.

Bill Mitchell, Seven-Day Detective, is an internationally renowned author who is recognized for his practical, solution-based investigative strategies to marriages facing infidelity. As a recognized expert on infidelity and child custody, Bill Mitchell appears regularly as a guest expert on TV and national talk shows including Dr. Phil, Today Show, and The Early Show. He has been interviewed by numerous publications including Chicago Tribune, Esquire, Ladies Home Journal Online, and PI Magazine.

Time Magazine heralded Mr. Mitchell's bold efforts in cracking the FBI's first major computer crime in 1978. Mitchell was the initial investigator in this landmark case. At Former FBI Agents' Conventions, FBI Director William Webster has boasted of this major accomplishment on numerous occasions.

Mr. Mitchell is a graduate of Mt. St. Mary's University with a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology. In 1985 he achieved Facility Security Officer Certification from the Department of Defense, as well as numerous certifications in security education. In 1978 Mitchell became certified as a P.S.E. (Psychological Stress Evaluator – Voice Stress) examiner in lie detection through Dektor Counterintelligence of Springfield, Virginia.

Since 1987 Mr. Mitchell has been a licensed private investigator in the state of New York and has traveled extensively throughout the United States on assignments; in addition to practicing within New York, he has practiced in Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Washington, D.C. and Virginia. He is currently licensed in the state of South Carolina.

Mitchell earned the rank of Eagle Scout with the Boy Scouts of America at age 14, and he continues to hold dear those values and skills learned in his youth. In every case he strives to uncover truth, counsels clients and helps to bring closure to those among the thousands in the midst of the crisis of adultery. His investigative work and courtroom testimonies have led to countless favorable legal decisions and out-of-court settlements.

Mr. Mitchell is a member of Associated Licensed Detectives of New York State, Inc., Investigator OnLine Network, South Carolina Association of Legal Investigators, Carolina Organization of Retail Theft Taskforce, Piedmont Claims Association, and the National Association of Investigative Specialists. He is currently working on several new books stemming from case assignments and associations with government agencies.

Originally from Cherry Hill, New Jersey, Bill now resides in South Carolina with his wife and four children.